The mission of the U.S. Army Signal Corps Museum is to function as a permanent historical and educational institution at Fort Gordon, providing training and education for soldiers and the general public on all aspects of the history of the Signal Corps, Fort Gordon, and the various units that have been stationed at the post. The museum will collect, preserve, exhibit, and interpret historically significant property related to these subjects.

The museum consists of two buildings. One building is our exhibits facility, including administrative offices.

The exhibits and administration building is located in Conrad Hall next to Signal Towers on Chamberlain Avenue, Bldg. 29807.

The Collections Management Facility is located in the old Brems Barracks area.
